

I wouldn't call myself lazy, but I hate doing school work. My name is Jackson Wall; I was born November 28, 1996 in Atlanta, GA on Thanksgiving Day. I have one older brother named Jared and two younger sisters Kaitlan and Kassie.

You might call my family weird, but I think their just different. Jared loves video games, but hates sports (and school). My sisters love Littlest Pet Shop and Webkinz. My mom and dad are pretty normal except they are very tall.

Now about me. I, like my brother, like video games, but I like sports and I think school is okay. I love animals especially cats. I hate writing (don't ask how I wrote this). I don't like many vegetables.

I like sports but I hate it when people cheat. I love to build things and I love puzzles. Well that's my life so far, hope you enjoyed it
